Jim Beauchamp 1939 - 2007

The Braves lost a beloved family member on Christmas Day 2007, when Jim Beauchamp passed away after fighting a lengthy battle against leukemia.

"Beach" played 10 years in the majors with the Cardinals, Astros, Braves, Reds and Mets, then touched the lives of hundreds of young players as a coach within the Braves organization.

He served as Bobby Cox's bench coach from 1991 to 1998, helping the Braves win one World Series championship, four National League pennants and seven division titles. Beauchamp then served as one of the Braves' roving minor league instructors from 1999 to 2006.

The Braves will honor Beauchamp with a special "BEACH" patch on their left jersey sleeves in 2008.

Turner Field - Home of the Braves since 1997.

Terence F. McGuirk

Chairman and CEO

Terence F. McGuirk is chairman and CEO of the Atlanta Braves. He also served as team president from November 2003 to October 2007. In his current capacity, he maintains executive oversight of all aspects of the Braves franchise, including all team operations, Turner Field and representation at Major League Baseball ownership meetings.

McGuirk spent 35 years at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), beginning in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, which later became TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation and played a key role in the launch of every Turner network through 2001.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979 was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales operation. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in Major League Baseball, the Atlanta Braves.

As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. (Ted) Turner as chairman, president and CEO. He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams, including the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry-related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College. He sits on the boards of trustees of The Westminster Schools and Piedmont Healthcare and the boards of directors of Haverty's, Inc., and the Sea Island Company. McGuirk is the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award. In 2006, he received the Governors Award from the southeastern chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

Atlanta Braves Ownership

Liberty Media Corporation officially acquired the Atlanta Braves on May 16, 2007, when Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig announced that Major League Baseball ownership had approved Turner Broadcasting and Time Warner's sale of the team.

Based in Englewood, Colorado, Liberty Media owns interests in a broad range of electronic retailing, media, communications, sports and entertainment businesses. Liberty's Chairman is John Malone. The following Liberty executives serve on the ANLBC Board: Mark D. Carleton, Gregory B. Maffei, Albert E. Rosenthaler, Christopher W. Shean, Charles Y. Tanabe and Craig Troyer.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman Emeritus ♦ Chairman of the Executive Committee

Bill Bartholomay, named Chairman Emeritus and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Atlanta Braves in November 2003, was previously Chairman of the Board of Directors of the team since its move to Atlanta in 1966. He has witnessed the Braves win 16 division championships (including a record-setting 14 in a row), five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another NL West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999 and division titles in each year from 2000 to 2005.

Bartholomay has been involved with the team as a director or owner for 45 years. In 1962, he became Chairman of the Milwaukee Braves and led the group in moving the club to Atlanta in 1966. In 2002, Bartholomay was inducted into the Hall of Fame at Turner Field. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is Co-Chairman of the Ownership Committee and Major League Baseball's Equal Opportunity Committee. He also serves as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, a member of the MLB Finance and Legislative committees and as a trustee of Major League Baseball Player's Benefit Plan.

In January 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of Willis Group Holdings (NYSE); Director of Midway Games; and Director Emeritus of WMS Industries, Inc. He has also served as a Commissioner of the Chicago Public Building Commission and past President of the Chicago Park District. He is a Director or Trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country.

John Schuerholz

President

Named president of the Braves on October 11, 2007, John Schuerholz oversees all operations for the Braves franchise.

In 2007, Schuerholz completed his 26th and final year as a general manager and his 17th season as the Braves' executive vice president and general manager. Before his promotion to president, he had the longest tenure with the same organization among all major league GMs. Schuerholz came to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990.

Under his leadership and guidance, the Braves have achieved unprecedented success, compiling the best record in baseball (1,594-1,092; .593) over the past 17 seasons. The Braves established an American professional sports record by winning 14 consecutive division titles from 1991 to 2005 (the 1994 season was not played to completion).

The Braves have won five NL pennants, one World Series, several organization of the year awards and have surpassed the 3,000,000 mark in attendance six times in the past 17 seasons. By finishing 101-61 in 2003, the Braves reached the century mark in victories for the fifth time in seven seasons and for the sixth time since 1993.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with three World Champions (1966, 1985 and 1995), eight pennant winners and 20 division crowns. In 2004, to honor his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. Atlanta's overall success in 2005 also helped the Braves earn Baseball America's prestigious Organization of the Year award.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Braves and Schuerholz. The Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001, 2002 and 2005. The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February 2000. Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding major league franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence in December 2001. As a result of the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction – he became the first executive to be general manager of world championship teams in both the American and National leagues. Since he was appointed general manager of the Kansas City Royals in 1981, his teams totaled an amazing 2,348 wins.

Winningest Teams Since 1991

Since John Schuerholz's arrival from Kansas City in October of 1990, the Braves have won more games than any other Major League team.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship (1985), two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six division crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

As a general manager, Schuerholz proved to be a man of action ever since joining the Braves. An average of about 10 new faces appeared on the club's Opening Day roster each year, reflecting offseason transactions and the maturing of farm system products. Almost without exception during the season, Schuerholz annually acquired at least one player who contributed greatly to the Braves' successful run. John Smoltz, in fact, is the only current Braves player who has been around for all 14 division titles since 1991.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Aaron has given back to society for more than 30 years. His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established to help children between the ages of nine and 12 realize their dreams, as he realized his. The foundation provides grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports.

Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity" in February 2003.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American Leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83.

Since December of 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). In 2007, Barry Bonds broke Aaron's record for Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second-youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second-youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three home run game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron serves on the Board of Governors for Boys and Girls Clubs of America. He also serves on the board of the Atlanta Falcons, Atlanta Technical College, Retail Ventures, Inc., and Medallion Financial Corporation.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gaile, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Aaron was born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934.

MANAGER

The 2007 season marked Bobby Cox's 26th campaign as a Major League manager and his 22nd at the helm of the Atlanta Braves. Atlanta finished 84-78 and a third place finish in the National League East Division.

Cox's 2,255 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 1,900 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox owns a career record of 2,255-1,764-3 and his .561 career winning percentage ranks third all-time. The Braves have won more games (1,594) in the 17-season span since 1991 than any other team in baseball. Cox has won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 in Atlanta that have led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995).

Atlanta's 2006 record of 79-83 marked just the sixth losing campaign in Cox's Major League career and snapped his string of 15 consecutive winning seasons, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17). He was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in May 2006.

The 2005 season was one that many observers considered the finest of Cox's long and storied career, as he led the injury-riddled Braves to their 14th consecutive division title. Despite extended injuries to such stars as Chipper Jones and Johnny Estrada, as well as lengthy absences by three-fifths of the starting rotation (Mike Hampton, Tim Hudson and John Thomson), Cox again worked his magic, utilizing the services of 18 different rookies, 12 of whom made their Major League debut. The Braves' 2005 first-place finish was the 15th in a row for Cox in seasons in which he managed from the outset, including his final year in Toronto in 1985. The 2005 campaign was Cox's 14th with 90 or more wins, placing him third all-time in 90-win seasons behind Hall of Famer skippers John McGraw (16) and Joe McCarthy (15). Cox was voted the NL Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America for the second consecutive season, and fourth overall, as well as being named Manager of the Year by Sporting News, Baseball America and Sports Weekly. Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the NL's top skipper for the fourth straight season, marking the seventh time he received the honor with the Braves and the eighth time overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936.

In 2004, Cox was voted the NL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA, as well as Sporting News, Baseball America and Sports Weekly. Despite the off-season departures of such players as Gary Sheffield, Javy Lopez, Vinny Castilla and Greg Maddux, and prolonged injuries to such stars as Horacio Ramirez and Marcus Giles, Cox proved the prognosticators wrong and led the club to a 96-66 record, winning the NL East by 10 games. On September 29, 2004, in the season's final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach that lofty milestone.

The Sporting News named Cox the NL Manager of the Year in 2003 as he moved past Casey Stengel into ninth place on the all-time managerial win list. He joined the Yankees' Joe McCarthy as the only managers in major league history to guide their teams to 100 or more wins in a season six times. The Braves, with their 101-61 record, utilized a record-setting offense and quality pitching, finishing 10 games ahead of the Florida Marlins in the NL East. With the Braves' 101st win on the last day of the 2003 season, a 5-2 victory at Philadelphia, Cox reached 1,906 career victories, one more than Stengel.

*Hall of Famer

Cox earned the Sporting News award for the fifth time in 2002, when the Braves won their 12th consecutive division title despite a mostly unheralded bullpen and injuries to key personnel.

Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight division titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its Mr. Baseball Award that season.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several postseason honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to 1981, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by finishing 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, the Associated Press and the Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz general manager in October of that year.

Cox spent five years in the Dodgers' farm system before being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the November 1964 Minor League Draft. He was acquired by the Braves in a 1966 trade that sent outfielder Billy Cowan to the Cubs. After playing for Triple-A Richmond in 1967, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team in 1968, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. He served as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977.

Born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, Okla., Cox graduated from Selma (Calif.) High School in 1959, and attended Reedley Junior College. He and his wife Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta. He has five other children: Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy.

GLENN HUBBARD

HEIGHT: 5-7 WEIGHT: 170
BORN: 9/25/57 at Hahn AFB, Germany
RESIDES: Stone Mountain, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 10th

FIRST BASE COACH17

A former Braves' player (1978-87), Glenn Hubbard is in his 10th season as the club's first base coach. Prior to joining the major league staff in 1999, Hubbard spent the previous nine years coaching with the Braves' minor league affiliates: Bradenton (1990), Macon (1991-92, 1994 and 1998) and Richmond (1993, 1995-97).

Hubbard wore a Braves uniform for 10 of his 12 major league seasons. In 1981 he set a then Atlanta Braves' record for second basemen with a .991 fielding percentage. His most successful year was in 1983, when he hit .263 and set career highs with 12 home runs and 70 RBI and was also named to the National League All-Star team. Hubbard led all NL second basemen in double plays in 1982, 1985 and 1987. He ended his playing career with the 1988 pennant-winning and the 1989 World Champion Oakland A's.

Hubbard, the Braves' 20th-round selection in the 1975 June draft, was signed by Bill Wight. Hubbard began his career with Atlanta in 1978 when he was promoted after being named Rookie of the Year in Richmond. In only his second major league game, he participated in a triple play against Philadelphia on July 15, 1978. He hit his first major league home run on September 23, 1978, off Cincinnati's Manny Sarmiento. On April 14, 1985, he tied a major league record for assists in a game by a second baseman when he had 12 vs. the Padres. Hubbard holds the record with seven other second basemen.

In 1998 with Macon, Glenn was named as a coach on the South Atlantic League's postseason All-Star team.

Born in Hahn AFB in Germany, Hubbard graduated from Lomand High School in Ogden, Utah. A four-sport athlete, participating in basketball, wrestling, football and baseball, he was inducted into the Utah Athletic Hall of Fame in November 2001.

Hubbard spent the 2006-07 off-season working rigorously with Kelly Johnson, as Johnson learned the second base position in preparation for the 2007 campaign. Johnson, who missed the 2006 season due to "Tommy John" surgery, played 133 games at second base in 2007 and made just 14 errors in 624 chances. He batted .276 with 52 extra-base hits, including 16 home runs.

Another great pupil for Hubbard was Marcus Giles, who hit .316 in an All-Star season in 2003, when he led the major leagues with a .342 road batting average, set a modern-day franchise record with 49 doubles. Giles also improved immeasurably as a fielder, leading the National League in assists by a second baseman with 471.

Glenn and his wife, Lynn, reside in Stone Mountain, Ga. They have three sons: Jeremy, Matthew and Daniel.

HITTING COACH

Terry Pendleton is in his seventh season as the Braves' hitting coach in 2008. In 2007, Atlanta again boasted a high-powered offense under Pendleton's watch, ranking second in the National League in hits (1,562), third in runs (810) and fourth in batting average (.275). The Braves established a franchise record with 328 doubles on the year. Chipper Jones (2nd, .337) and Edgar Renteria (4th, .332) both made runs to become the first Brave to win the NL batting title since Pendleton himself turned the trick in 1991.

The Braves have compiled 300 doubles in a season six times in franchise history, including each of the last five seasons (2003-2007) under Pendleton's supervision.

The 2006 campaign was one of Pendleton's most successful as a coach. Despite numerous injuries, the Braves led the NL in home runs (222) and slugging percentage (.455) and ranked second in the circuit in runs scored (849) and batting average (.270). The home run total ranked second in franchise history, while the runs total ranked second in Atlanta history.

In 2005, Pendleton was instrumental in outfielder Andruw Jones' MVP-caliber season, as Jones adopted a new batting stance and established a Braves' franchise record with 51 home runs. Pendleton also worked closely with a string of rookies who made huge contributions throughout the season. The 2005 Braves became the first team in history to reach the postseason with six rookies who had 100 or more at-bats (the previous record was four rookies by the 1983 Los Angeles Dodgers and the 1989 Chicago Cubs).

In his second season as Braves' hitting coach in 2003, the team established franchise bests in home runs (235), hits (1,608), doubles (321) and slugging percentage (.475) and had the highest team batting average in Atlanta history (.284). Several individual players enjoyed "career" seasons as well, and much of the credit for those accomplishments went to Pendleton.

Named to the Braves staff in November 2001, this is Pendleton's first major league coaching position. He enjoyed a 15-year major league playing career and was selected the NL Most Valuable Player in 1991 and was an All-Star third baseman in 1992 while playing for the Braves.

A switch-hitter, Pendleton batted .287 with 71 home runs and 322 RBI in 593 games for Atlanta and .270 with 140 homers and 946 RBI in 1,893 games overall with the St. Louis Cardinals, Braves, Florida Marlins, Cincinnati Reds and Kansas City Royals. He was a three-time recipient of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award (in 1987 and 1989 with St. Louis and in 1992 with Atlanta).

Signed as a free agent in December of 1990 by general manager John Schuerholz, Pendleton played for the Braves from 1991 through 1994 and in part of 1996. He was a key factor in the Braves' turn-around from being the worst team in the major leagues in 1990 to a pennant-winning club the next year, as he batted an NL-best .319 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI. He tied for the league lead with 303 total bases, helping him earn Comeback Player of the Year honors, as well as the MVP award.

He was voted an All-Star starter in 1992, hitting .296 with 13 home runs and 51 RBI before the break and finishing the year with a .311 average, 21 homers and a career-high 105 RBI to lead the Braves to another pennant. He led the NL with a .387 average with runners in scoring position and had a career-best 199 hits, a franchise record for third basemen.

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1982 June draft, Pendleton, after his first four seasons with the Braves, signed with the Marlins as a free agent in April 1995. Florida traded him back to Atlanta in exchange for outfielder Roosevelt Brown in August 1996. Pendleton was signed as a free agent by the Reds in January 1997 and the Royals in January 1998. He retired as a player the following December.

Terry and his wife, Catherine, and their three children, Stephanie, Terry and Trinity, reside in Duluth, Ga.

After concluding a 20-year playing career in 2006, Eddie Perez opened a new chapter in his baseball life in 2007. He joined the Braves' coaching staff as the bullpen coach after playing 11 seasons at the major league level, including nine seasons with the Braves.

Perez played 18 of his 20 professional seasons in the Braves organization. The former catcher began his career with Bradenton in 1987 and reached the majors in 1995, the year Atlanta won the World Series. Perez was on seven postseason squads for Atlanta (1995-99, 2001, 2004) and played in 30 postseason games. His .464 (13-for-28) batting average in National League Championship Series competition is the highest ever for a catcher (minimum 25 at-bats). Perez batted .500 (10-for-20) in the 1999 NLCS vs. the Mets and claimed series MVP honors.

Perez spent the 2002 season with the Cleveland Indians and played with the Milwaukee Brewers in 2003 before re-joining the Braves in 2004. Right shoulder tendinitis plagued Perez throughout the 2005 season, and he spent the entire 2006 campaign at Double-A Mississippi. He was limited to just 13 games in 2006, but spent much of his time assisting M-Braves Manager Jeff Blauser.

Perez attended Doctor Raul Cuenca High School in Ciudad Ojeda, Venezuela, where he played volleyball and baseball. He and his wife, Marisol, have one daughter, Mariel, and one son, Andres Eduardo, and reside in Duluth, Ga.

Hudson's 2007 Season Recap

- Went 16-10 with a 3.33 ERA, his best marks since going 16-7 with a 2.70 ERA for Oakland in 2003.
- Atlanta won 13 of Tim's last 18 games and went 22-12 in his starts. Led the team with 34 starts.
- Notched 224.1 innings, marking the sixth time in the last eight seasons he has reached 200 IP.
- Allowed only 10 home runs this season and his ratio of 0.40 HRs allowed per 9 IP was 2nd in the majors to LAD's B. Penny (0.39).
- The bullpen blew three games in which Tim was in line for the win.
- Pitched 16 times following an Atlanta loss and the Braves went 13-3. Tim's record in those games was 10-2 with a 2.43 ERA (29 ER/107.1 IP).
- Went 8-6, 3.58 in 17 home starts and 8-4, 3.09 in 17 road games.
- Was 8-5 with a 3.08 ERA after the A.S. break. Went 8-5, 3.54 before the break.
- Tied for 5th in NL in wins (16), ranked third in IP (224.1) and seventh in ERA (3.33).
- Had the most total chances fielding without making an error than any pitcher in baseball (70 TC).
- Ranked fourth in the NL with 25 quality starts and has gone 7+ innings in 21 of his 34 outings this season.
- Got out to a fast start with a 3-0 mark in April with a 1.40 ERA in six starts. Also went 3-0 in July with a 2.76 ERA in five starts.
- Against NL East rivals, Tim was 8-5 with a 2.83 ERA in 17 starts, including a 4-0 mark with a 0.60 ERA in four starts vs. WSH.
- Did well with extra rest, going 6-1 with a 1.59 ERA in seven starts on five-days rest and 1-0 with a 0.64 ERA in two starts with six-or-more-days rest, while going 9-9 with a 4.12 ERA in 25 games on regular rest.
- Carried a shutout into the eighth inning vs. MIL on 9/21, but allowed three runs in the eighth (all with two outs) and lost 4-1.
- Posted his 21st career CG and 10th career shutout with a 3-0 win at WSH on 9/16. The Nats' leadoff batter reached base in six of the nine innings (4 H, 1 BB, 1 error), but only one runner reached third base.
- Lost a 7-1 decision to NYM on 8/31, going 6.0 innings and allowing four runs (all with two outs) on six hits. Allowed two homers for the first time in 32 starts (since 9/13/06 vs. PHI).
- Had a nine-game winning streak (the longest in the NL this season) snapped at STL on 8/25. Held a 3-0 lead in the fifth inning, but the Cards plated five runs on six hits. It marked just his second career loss (first since 2000) when holding a lead of three or more runs.
- Won 14-4 at CIN on 8/20, but had his five-game hitting streak (6-for-12, 4 RBI) snapped. His hitting streak tied for the third-longest for a Braves' pitcher since 1957, and trailed only Tony Cloninger's eight-game streak in 1965 and Ron Reed's six-gamer in 1972.
- Earned his fourth straight win 8/15 vs. SF in a 6-3 win. Barry Bonds' HR in the sixth inning snapped a 66-inning homerless stretch for Tim, dating back to Boston's David Ortiz in the fourth inning on 6/19 at Atlanta.

- Had back-to-back 7-inning outings in which he didn't allow a run - in a 6-4 win over COL on 8/4 and in a 14-0 win at ARI on 7/29.
- Pitched brilliantly for a season-high 8.2 innings at SF on 7/24, but could not get the win, as he allowed three runs in the ninth and Bob Wickman blew the save opp. Atlanta won 7-5 in 13 innings.
- Won for the first time in five starts on 6/25 vs. WSH, allowing just one run in the seventh inning while walking none and fanning nine.
- Matched up vs. Johan Santana at MIN on 6/14 and pitched 7.1 scoreless innings, only to see the bullpen blow a 2-0 lead in the ninth and lose the game 3-2. Tim allowed only two hits and one walk in the game (84 pitches).
- Was forced to leave his start on 6/9 vs. CHI after taking a Jacque Jones liner off his left shin. X-rays were negative. Tim allowed four first-inning runs, but got a ND as the Braves rallied for a 9-5 win.
- Picked up fourth win on 5/10, a 5-3 decision over San Diego. Threw just 80 pitches, and left the game after the sixth inning after he took a line drive off his left wrist (off the bat of Josh Bard) to lead off the inning. He finished the inning, and x-rays were taken after he came out of the game (negative).
- Pitched with a heavy heart on 4/30 vs. PHI, following the deaths the previous morning of his grandmother and his friend and former Auburn (1997) teammate Josh Hancock. Went 8.0 innings and left with the score tied 2-2. The Braves won 5-2 on Andruw Jones' walk-off three-run HR.
- Had a heartbreaker of a game on 4/25 at FLA. Tossed a gem for 8.0 innings, fanning a career-high 12 batters and allowing no walks and just six hits, but in the ninth inning the Marlins hit three ground balls up the middle and Tim made his exit with the bases loaded and no outs. Bob Wickman entered and suffered his first blown save and first loss of the season when all three runners scored and the winning run crossed the plate on a passed ball. It snapped Hudson's 22-inning scoreless streak.
- Picked up his third win with 8.0 shutout innings at NYM on 4/20. Carried a no-hitter into the fifth inning, then worked out of a bases-loaded situation that inning. Also had two runners on with one out in the eighth before escaping with no damage.
- Was named the Bank of America NL Player of the Week for the week ending 4/15. On the week, Tim won games over WSH and FLA and allowed one run in 14.0 IP (0.64 ERA) while walking five and fanning 11.
- Pitched in six spring training games and posted a 1-1 record with a 2.16 ERA (10th in Grapefruit League). Struck out 15 and walked just five in 25.0 IP.

- Recorded a quality start in 26 of his 32 outings.
- Atlanta was 18-14 in John's starts.
- John got roughed up in his final start of the season on 9/27 at PHI, giving up a season-high tying five earned runs in just 4.0 IP making it his shortest outing since 5/29 at MIL when he left with an injury. He got a ND as Atlanta rallied to win 4-3 (11 inn.).

- Carried a no-hitter into the 8th inning on 9/7 vs. WSH before R. Belliard's single to leadoff the inning in a 7-1 win. Belliard scored as an inherited runner off the bullpen. He fanned 10, his 43rd career 10+ strikeout game.

- In his first start since coming off the DL, and in his first game since 7/2 at LAD, threw seven scoreless innings and fanned a season-high 11 hitters, but had no decision due to an 8th-inning blown save on 7/18 vs. CIN.

- Placed on the DL on 7/6 (retroactive to 7/3) with right shoulder inflammation. Returned to ATL on 7/5 to rest the shoulder.
- Was named to his eighth NL All-Star team, but was unable to play due to shoulder inflammation.
- Became the Atlanta career strikeout leader and moved past Hall of Fame pitcher Jim Bunning for 16th place on the all-time strikeout list on 6/22 vs. Detroit. John allowed five two-out runs in the sixth inning in the 5-0 loss. The Braves had just two hits in the game.

- Was forced to skip his start on 6/10 vs. CHI due to right shoulder soreness.
- Went 4-1 with a 1.66 ERA in May.
- Missed his start on 6/3 after he left his 5/29 start at MIL in the fourth inning. John slipped during warmup pitches between innings and felt a "twinge" in his right shoulder. He left the game as a precaution after he retired Ricky Weeks to lead off the fourth inning. Atlanta lost the game 5-4, but John did not figure in the decision (3.1 IP, 8 H, 3 R). In his previous six games before the injury, went 5-1 w/1.30 ERA (6 ER/41.2 IP).
- Tossed 7.0 shutout innings in a 2-1 win over NYM on 5/24 - his 200th career victory. The win came against friend and former teammate Tom Glavine and made John the 106th pitcher to win 200 career games.
- Had his four-game winning streak snapped with a 2-1 loss on 5/14 at WSH, and had a huge scare in the seventh inning. John tagged Austin Kearns out in a rundown at home plate, and immediately left the game after dislocating the distal joint on his right pinky finger. X-rays were negative. For the game he threw only 77 pitches and allowed two runs on four hits in 6.2 IP.
- Earned his fifth win vs. SD and former teammate Greg Maddux on 5/9. John allowed solo homers to Geoff Blum and Adrian Gonzalez, but the Braves pulled out a 3-2 win. It marked the fourth career matchup between Smoltz and Maddux and the first since Maddux left the Braves following the 2003 season. Smoltz is 3-1 in the matchup. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the matchup marked the longest amount of time between two starting pitchers facing each other since Fergie Jenkins and Don Sutton faced off in May 1982. Maddux and Smoltz faced each other with a span of 14 years, 304 days between meetings. Jenkins (Cubs) and Sutton (Astros) met 14 years, 360 days after their previous meeting May 21, 1967.
- On 4/26, agreed to terms on a contract extension that includes a guaranteed contract for 2008, a vesting option for 2009 and a club option for 2010.
- Did not earn a decision in his start at NYM on 4/22, when he matched up against Tom Glavine. John allowed just one hit through four innings, but then allowed a Shawn Green solo homer in the fifth and five runs on five hits in the sixth. His strikeout of Carlos Beltran to end the fifth inning was the 2,799th of John's career and moved him past Hall of Famer Cy Young into 18th place on the all-time strikeout list.
- Made his fourth career Opening Day start on 4/4 at PHI, getting a ND after allowing three runs in six innings in a 5-3 Atlanta win (10 innings). John struck out seven while walking just one.

Winning With Character Program

Bob Wadsworth
Program Coordinator

In 2006, the Atlanta Braves became the first professional baseball organization to install the Winning With Character Program. The nationally-known program gives the organization an opportunity to continue its commitment to developing players both on and off the playing field as well as long after their playing careers.

Through the program, players are taught valuable lessons surrounding character and leadership development that will enable them to make responsible life decisions. Bob Wadsworth, a member of the professional baseball community for fifty-plus years, is in his third year as the facilitator of the Winning With Character Program.

Wadsworth originally joined the Braves organization in 1981 as an area scout, a position he held for seven years (1987-1994) before spending the next seven seasons in the Seattle Mariners organization as a national crosschecker. In 1995, Wadsworth returned to the Braves and held various positions, including national cross checker, west coast supervisor and professional scout over the next 10 seasons. Bob and his wife, Crystal, have a son and a grandson and reside in Westminster, CA.

The Winning With Character Program was developed by Dr. Sharon Stoll, Director of the Center for Ethics in Sport at the University of Idaho.

In Memory

Mel Roberts

At the conclusion of the 2007 season the Atlanta Braves organization was saddened by the loss of Mel Roberts. Roberts, 61, passed away suddenly from heart complications.

As a member of the Braves minor league coaching staff from 1996-2007, Roberts spent the past 11 seasons with three Atlanta affiliates (Danville, 2005-07; Greenville, 2001-04 and 1996-98; Richmond, 1999-2000). Prior to joining the Braves, he was the first base coach for the Philadelphia Phillies from 1992-95. Roberts' coaching career began in 1969 with the Phillies organization as a player-coach at Raleigh-Durham.

Roberts played nine seasons of professional baseball from 1961-69 with the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Phillies.

Mel was also active in the community as his dedication and commitment to youth in his hometown of Spartanburg, SC, resulted in the establishment of the Mel Roberts Scholarship Foundation.

Manager: In his first season with Richmond, Dave Brundage led the club to the International League Championship and a 77-64 regular season record en route to being named the organization's minor league Manager of the Year. Brundage, who has compiled a 730-669 (.522) record in 10 seasons as a minor league manager, has led seven of his clubs to the postseason and three of his clubs to league championships. Brundage also managed the U.S. team in the 2007 Futures Game.

Brundage came to the Braves in 2007 after spending the previous 19 years as a player, coach and manager in the Seattle Mariners organization. Most recently Brundage managed the Triple-A Tacoma Rainiers (2006) and the San Antonio Missions (AA) from 2001-05.

In 2003, Brundage was named the Texas League Manager of the Year and Minor League Manager of the Year by Baseball America, as he led San Antonio to the Texas League title for the second straight season and finished first in the league for the third straight season. Brundage also managed the West Division in the 2001 TL All-Star game.

From 1998-2000, Brundage served as the hitting coach for Triple-A Tacoma. During the 1997 season he managed the Memphis Chicks (AA), their only season as a Mariner affiliate. Brundage began his managerial career in 1995 with the Mariners' Single-A affiliate in the California League, leading them to a 72-67 record and remained with them through the 1996 season.

Originally drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the fourth round of the 1986 draft, Brundage spent a total of seven seasons (Philadelphia, 1986, and Seattle, 1987-1992) in the minor leagues as an outfielder and pitcher before being re-signed by Seattle in 1993 as a player-coach at Calgary. Brundage, 42, resides in Portland, OR, with his wife Dameron, and son, Beau and twins, Baylor and Barrett.

Pitching Coach: Guy Hansen is in his third stint with the Braves organization and his sixth season overall as the Richmond Braves pitching coach. In 2007, Hansen's pitching staff led the International League with the fewest earned runs allowed (498) and their team ERA of 3.65 ranked fifth-best (0.06 points behind the leader). Hansen was also a member of the World Team coaching staff for the 2007 Futures Game.

Hansen originally joined the organization in 1998 as a special assistant to the scouting and player development office. During his two seasons as a special assistant, Hansen also served as the minor league pitching instructor. Following a two-year hiatus, Guy returned to the organization as the Richmond Braves pitching coach from 2001-04.

Hansen spent the 2006 season with the Kansas City Royals as a special assistant in the player development department and was the Major League club's pitching coach in 2005, a position he also held from 1991-93. During the 1996-97 campaigns, Hansen served as the Royals bench coach. Hansen began his professional coaching career in the Royals minor league system in 1986 with the Eugene Emeralds of the Northwest League (1986-88) and made stops in Memphis (1989-90) and Omaha (1991).

As an area scout in the Royals system (1981-83), Hansen is credited with signing Bret Saberhagen, Kevin Appier, Cecil Fielder and Jeff Conine. In addition to scouting stints with the Braves, Baltimore Orioles, Kansas City Royals and MLB Scouting Bureau, Hansen has worked at the collegiate level for UCLA and Pepperdine University.

He began his professional career with the Royals as a 44th-round draft pick in 1969 and played four seasons in the Royals farm system. Guy and his wife, Ivette, have four children, Eva Lolita, Ariana, Dakota and Bret and reside in Goochland, VA.

Hitting Coach: Chris Chambliss is in his first season as hitting coach for the Richmond Braves after serving as the club's manager in 1992. Chambliss first joined the Braves in a coaching role in 1991 as manager at Greenville (AA) where he was named Southern League Manager of the Year.

Chambliss most recently served as the hitting coach for the Cincinnati Reds (2003-06). From 1996-2000, Chambliss was the hitting coach for the New York Yankees when they won four World Series, and prior to that he spent time with the New York Mets and Pittsburgh Pirates organizations.

Chambliss' coaching career began in 1988 as the Yankees' hitting coach and worked in the same capacity from 1993-95 for the St. Louis Cardinals. He had five seasons as a minor league manager (1989-92, 2001) and earned Eastern League Manager of the Year honors with the London Tigers in 1990.

Chambliss played 17 seasons in the majors, including seven seasons (1980-86) with the Braves, and amassed a .279 average with 972 RBI in 2,175 games. His 36 doubles in 1980 tied Hank Aaron's then-Atlanta doubles record.

Chris and his wife, Audry, reside in Alpharetta, GA.

Trainer: Mike Graus is in his 16th season with the Braves organization and third with the Richmond Braves. Prior to joining the Richmond club in 2006, Graus served as the athletic trainer for Mississippi. Graus started with the Idaho Falls Braves and has had assignments in Danville, Eugene, Macon, Myrtle Beach, Greenville and Mississippi.

In addition to his training duties with the Braves, Graus has worked in the Instructional League as well as the Venezuelan Winter League and Arizona Fall League. He is also the Minor League Head Athletic Trainer and has worked Major League spring training in 1998, 2001, 2003 and 2005.

Graus earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from the University of Nebraska in 1991 and his master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of Alabama at Birmingham in 1993. Mike, his wife, Erica, and their daughters, Ashton and Avery, reside in Marietta, GA.

Dal Canton's major league coaching experience includes three years (1987-90) as the Atlanta Braves pitching coach. He originally joined the Braves organization in 1982 as the Durham pitching coach.

Over a 12-year major league career beginning in 1967, Dal Canton compiled a 51-49 record as a spot starter with the Pirates, Royals, Braves and White Sox. Primarily a reliever with Pittsburgh, Dal Canton went 20-8 for the Pirates between 1967 and 1970. He pitched over a year without a loss, recording a 7-0 mark from June 29, 1969, to July 20, 1970. With Kansas City, Dal Canton set a Royals' club record (later broken by Steve Busby in 1974) when he retired 23 consecutive batters against the Yankees on August 14, 1972. Signed by the Braves after his release by Kansas City in 1975, Dal Canton pitched in Atlanta through the 1976 season. In April of 1977 he was signed as a free agent by the White Sox. Following his release in June of 1978, he served as the White Sox pitching coach for the remainder of the season.

In 2000, Albert was named the Braves' organization Manager of the Year after leading the team to a 26-34 record and a third place finish in the Eastern Division race.

In previous managerial stops within the Braves farm system, Albert managed at Burlington (1988), Anderson (1983-1984), and Pulaski (1982). In 1997, Ingle led the Greenville Braves to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year. During the 1996 season, he led the Durham Bulls of the Carolina League to a 73-66 record, including a 38-31 first place finish in the first half.

Ingle, a former infielder, played within the Braves farm system from 1979 to 1987, including an appointment as a player-coach at Greenville in 1987. Randy and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Forest City, NC, with their two children, Taylor and Meghan.

Pitching Coach: Jim Czajkowski (Zak) returns for his second stint with the Rome Braves and is in his ninth season as a pitching coach in the Atlanta organization. During 2007, Czajkowski served as the pitching coach for the Danville Braves, a position he also held from 2002-04. From 2005-06 he was a member of the Rome Braves coaching staff.

An Atlanta Braves' 29th-round selection in 1986, Czajkowski was a member of five different organizations over a span of 12 seasons. In 1994, Czajkowski received his first Major League call-up with the Colorado Rockies. He made his debut in San Francisco and the first batter he faced was Barry Bonds.

Czajkowski's playing career ended in 1997 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Over his 12-year playing career, he amassed 121 minor league saves and was a proud member of 12 playoff teams while winning four championships. He was also a three-time minor league All-Star and played in all four winter ball leagues.

Jim and his wife, Cheri, reside in Sevierville, TN, with their sons Josh and Zak.

Hitting Coach: Bobby Moore returns to the Rome club for his eighth season. Before joining Rome, Moore spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as a coach for the Braves' Class A affiliate in Greenville. In 1998, he worked under Paul Runge with the Danville 97s. His inaugural season of professional coaching was 1997 when he served as a coach with the Braves Single-A affiliate (Eugene Emeralds) of the Northwest League.

Moore attended Eastern Kentucky University and was a 16th-round draft pick by the Kansas City Royals in 1987. Moore played in the Braves organization from 1992-96, when in 1996, a fractured hip cut short his last season in Richmond.

Twice in his career Moore was named to an All-Star team (Northwest League, 1987 and Southern League, 1990). During the 1991 season, Moore received a call-up to the majors with the Kansas City Royals which lasted 18 games, resulting in a .357 average in 14 at-bats.

In December of 1991, Moore was traded to the Atlanta Braves in exchange for Rico Rossy. He spent the 1992 season with Richmond and after a one-year stint playing for the Laredos of the Mexican League. He rejoined the Royals organization in 1994 before being signed as a free agent by the Richmond Braves in June. Moore finished the 1994 season in a flurry, hitting .366 in 60 games along with 10 steals. During his 10-year professional baseball career (1987-96), Moore compiled a .279 average and recorded 175 stolen bases.

Bobby and his wife, Jane, reside in his hometown of Cincinnati, OH, with their son, Robert.

Manager: Paul Runge, the Braves' 2006 Minor League Manager of the Year, returns to Danville for his fourth season after leading the team to back-to-back first place finishes in the Appalachian League (2006, 40-27, and 2005, 47-20).

Runge's managerial experience dates back to 1993 with the Idaho Falls Braves, one year after he began his professional coaching career with Idaho. His previous managerial stops within the Braves organization include Greenville (1999-2001), Danville (1998 and 1994), Durham (1997), Macon (1996) and Eugene (1995). In addition, he has managed in the Arizona Fall League (1997) and the Australian Winter League (1994-95).

Runge's playing career began in 1979 when the Atlanta Braves selected him in the ninth round of the draft as a shortstop out of Jacksonville University. Runge enjoyed an eight-year playing career (1981-88) with the Braves. He was also a member of the San Diego Padres organization (1989) and the Toronto Blue Jays organization (1990).

Paul and his wife, Rae Ellen, have two daughters, Renee and Marissa, and reside in Jupiter, FL.

Pitching Coach: Derrick Lewis is in his first year as the pitching coach for the Danville Braves and his fifth season overall in the Braves organization. Lewis previously served in the same capacity for four seasons with the Gulf Coast League Braves. Lewis' affiliation with the Braves dates back to 1997 when Atlanta selected him in the 20th-round of the June free agent draft.

Lewis spent six years (1997-2003) as a pitcher in the Braves' minor league system and was selected by the Braves organization as the Myrtle Beach Pitcher of the Year in 1999 when he finished second in the Carolina League in ERA. For his career, he posted a 31-37 record with a 4.05 ERA.

Derrick and his wife, Roslyn, reside in Montgomery, AL.

Coach: Carlos Mendez is in his first season as a coach in the Atlanta Braves organization. Mendez, a career .297 hitter at the minor league level, played for 16 seasons with five different organizations (Kansas City, Detroit, Oakland, Baltimore and Atlanta) from 1991-2007. During his 16-year career, Mendez often ranked in the top ten in several offensive categories and he was also named to a few all-star teams.

In 2003 Mendez spent nearly four months with the Baltimore Orioles over two stints and played in 26 games for the club. In 1994 he led the Midwest League (Single-A) with a .355 batting average. Mendez was originally signed by the Kansas City Royals as a non-drafted free agent in 1991.

Carlos and his wife, Courtney, have two children, Carlos Jr., and Tatiana and reside in Wilmington, DE.

Trainer: Eric Malek is in his first season with the Danville Braves and the Braves organization. Prior to joining the Braves' staff, he was a graduate assistant athletic trainer for Baylor University's baseball team in Waco, TX. Malek and the Bears were eliminated from postseason play after reaching the Houston Regional for the first time since 2000.

He got his first taste of the Major Leagues in 2005 when he interned for the Wilmington Blue Rocks (then Advanced-A affiliate for the Boston Red Sox) of the Carolina League as an athletic trainer.

Malek earned his bachelor's degree from Texas Christian University in 2004 and his master's from Baylor University in 2007. Eric, single, currently resides in his hometown of Paradise, TX and enjoys playing music, hunting, fishing and cooking in his spare time.

Braves In The World Series

1914 World Series - Boston 4, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves," who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

The Braves, under manager Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost in the World Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in Game 5, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive home runs off Feller.

1957 World Series - Milwaukee 4, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' 10th-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days' rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 World Series - New York 4, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come back from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two games and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 World Series - Minnesota 4, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first NL player in Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and Series MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 World Series - Toronto 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (the last three setbacks to the Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's sixth-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a comeback 5-4 win, sparked by a ninth-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of four runs over Games 3 and 4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the ninth on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8-for-15) with five stolen bases.

1995 World Series - Atlanta 4, Cleveland 2

The Braves captured Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 postseason hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a postseason. Grissom hit safely in all 14 postseason contests, the longest streak ever in one postseason. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the postseason 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for postseason hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the '95 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957).

1996 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight World Championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two at-bats in Game 1 (3-for-4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only six hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, two were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had three RBI in Game 2, after getting two in Game 1, to give him 15 RBI for the postseason, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the postseason. Including the final three victories over the Cardinals in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 3, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the eighth, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a three-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz 1-0 in Game 5, with the only score coming on a fourth-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for three runs in the third in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

1999 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to just nine runs in a four-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the fourth, but the Yankees parlayed three hits, three walks and two errors into four runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's ninth-inning single. After the offense's two-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the ninth inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for five runs (four ER) on eight hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked three doubles in the first four innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the fifth and Tino Martinez in the seventh to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the eighth on a two-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless ninth sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final six innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shutout Atlanta over the first seven innings and the Yankees' three-run third proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' eighth straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

1991 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 series ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Series MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Pirates in Game 2. The Bucs captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for Game 7 drama. Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the ninth scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win. With their improbable ninth-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive postseason game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 League Championship Series - Philadelphia 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves with a .435 series batting average.

1995 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned to the World Series for the third time in the last four Fall Classics by sweeping the Reds with the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game in the top of the ninth. Series MVP Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a three-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory in Game 3. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a three-run homer. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their postseason saga by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS, as they crushed the Cardinals 32-1 over the final three games. Game 1 saw Javy Lopez break a tie in the eighth with a bases-loaded, two-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 win behind John Smoltz. Chipper Jones led the attack by going 4-for-4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his fourth save in four appearances in the '96 postseason. The momentum in the series shifted in Game 2 when Gary Gaetti's seventh-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into an 8-3 victory. In Game 3, Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with two outs and no one on in the St. Louis seventh, but the Redbirds fought back to tie the score, then claimed the lead for good in the eighth on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five first-inning runs in a 14-0 win, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez went 4-for-5 with two doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added four hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. In Game 6, Maddux blanked the Cardinals through seven innings en route to a 3-1 win. Mark Wohlers' eighth-inning wild pitch accounted for the only Cardinals run in the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored six in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's three-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 rout broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent Atlanta to its fourth World Series in the last five played. Lopez won MVP honors, batting .542 (13-for-24) with five doubles, two HRs and six RBI.

1997 League Championship Series - Florida 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record sixth straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only one unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for five runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to three hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run double off John Smoltz in the sixth inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on four hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series 2-2. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in Game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only five hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only three hits and notching a NLCS-record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a four-run first inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves by hitting .500 (8-for-16).

1998 League Championship Series - San Diego 4, Atlanta 2

Atlanta fought back from a three-games-to-none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in six games. The Braves entered the bottom of the ninth of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first two games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 in the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. The Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a three-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a three-run lead into the bottom of the ninth, but a two-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of the series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0. All the runs crossed the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field. Padres hurlers held the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames of the series.

1999 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, New York 2

The Braves clinched their fifth NL pennant of the 1990s with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta. It concluded a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within four outs of a four-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within three outs of forcing a seventh game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted two-run homers in the bottom of the sixth to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an eighth-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the ninth to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the first inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding three-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but Olerud's two-out, two-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a two-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a two-run homer by Olerud in the first — rally for two runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a five-run first inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a two-run Piazza blast in the seventh off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the eighth on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within three outs of a seventh game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its fifth World Series of the 1990s. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10-for-20) with two homers and five RBI.

2001 League Championship Series - Arizona 4, Atlanta 1

The Braves, appearing in their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, as Arizona captured its first pennant in a 4-1 series victory. The Braves managed only three hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix, but did salvage a split of the first two road games as Javy Lopez's two-run homer in the seventh snapped a 1-1 tie, with Atlanta going on to an 8-1 win in Game 2. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondbacks' 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting the Braves to four hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. The Braves took a 2-0 lead through two innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but three Atlanta errors aided a four-run D-Back third, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding three-games-to-one lead in the series. The Braves committed four miscues overall, leading to six unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the three-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally two unearned runs in the fifth inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to two runs over seven innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in two starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

Braves In The Division Series

1995 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded-playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won 5-4. Rookie Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing 4-3 in the ninth. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two homers and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Greg Maddux, Grissom and Fred McGriff led the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for postseason hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Los Angeles 0

Despite hitting only .180 and being held to 10 runs, the Braves swept the Dodgers in three games, as the staff allowed only three earned runs in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game 1 in LA saw the Braves continue their tradition of one-run postseason games, as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz earned the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2, Fred McGriff's lead-off HR in the seventh tied the game at 2-2 and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only two unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his second save in two games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. Atlanta completed the sweep as Tom Glavine and Chipper Jones (two-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a two-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a four-run fourth inning, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo.

1997 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the second inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks, including eight issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in Game 3 at Houston, as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating three-hitter, taking a 4-1 decision. Braves starters Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz combined for a 1.87 series ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP).

1998 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves had posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings.

The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth, but Kerry Ligtenberg pitched two scoreless innings and sent the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros and advance to their record eighth straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only one run on seven hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the fifth one-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood allowed only a second-inning homer to Ken Caminiti. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning postseason classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all five runs, courtesy of a three-run, sixth-inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a two-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Gutierrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have the series sewed up thanks to a five-run sixth in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the eighth, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a three-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the ninth again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

2000 Division Series - St. Louis 3, Atlanta 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for six runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for two of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (four walks, five wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' four-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored two runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's three-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series. Tom Glavine was tagged for seven earned runs in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest postseason outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood and the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

2001 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the seventh straight year, took three in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta's pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux kept the Astros at bay in hitter-friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the eighth inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive three-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings and making an unearned Braves run in the second inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Home runs by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided Atlanta with three runs over the first three innings and John Burkett teamed with four relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense en route to a 6-2 victory in Game 3. Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 average, including two homers and five RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6-for-12 with a solo home run.

2002 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead in their record eighth straight Division Series, only to see the Giants rebound to capture the final two contests and the series. Atlanta faced an 8-2 deficit in Game 1, and after a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh, went on to bring the tying run to the plate with two men aboard and no outs in the ninth. Giants closer Robb Nen, however, squelched the uprising by retiring Julio Franco on a liner to right and inducing a game-ending double play from Gary Sheffield. In Game 2, back-to-back homers by Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla sparked a three-run second inning, and Kevin Millwood combined with three relievers to make the lead stand up for a 7-3 Braves win, evening the NLDS at a game apiece. The series moved to San Francisco for Game 3, in which the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie with a five-run sixth, courtesy of a bases-loaded single by Vinny Castilla, and a three-run homer on the next pitch by Keith Lockhart en route to a 10-2 win. Needing one more win to clinch the series, the Braves sent Tom Glavine to the mound in Game 4, but the Giants tagged Glavine for the second time in the series, sending the series to a fifth and final game in Atlanta. A second-inning solo homer by former Brave Reggie Sanders and a fourth-inning blast by Barry Bonds proved to be decisive, as Russ Ortiz and four Giants relievers stymied the Braves offense in a 3-1 clincher. Atlanta put runners on first and third in the bottom of the ninth with no outs against Nen, but saw him escape by fanning Sheffield and inducing Chipper Jones to hit into a game-ending double play.

2003 Division Series - Chicago 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves, in their ninth straight Division Series, matched up with the Chicago Cubs in a back-and-forth five-game series that ended with the Cubs taking Game 5 at Turner Field to send them to the NLCS. Chicago's pitching tandem of Kerry Wood and Mark Prior were the story. In Game 1, Wood took over. In addition to a dominating performance on the mound, Wood broke the game open with his two-run sixth-inning double to lead the Cubs to a 4-2 win in front of 52,043 in Atlanta. Russ Ortiz struggled, especially in the sixth when Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez and Eric Karros led off with three straight singles. Robert Fick then bobbled a potential double play ball off the bat of Paul Bako, allowing Alou to score and setting the stage for Wood. The Braves scored first in the third inning on a Marcus Giles two-out homer and in the eighth on a Chipper Jones' ground out. The Braves rebounded to take Game 2, 5-3, on Mark DeRosa's eighth-inning two-out, two-run double off Dave Veres after John Smoltz allowed a rare run in the top of the inning that tied the game at 3-3. DeRosa was in the lineup after Giles suffered a severely bruised left quadriceps in Game 1. Giles still contributed when he limped off the bench and delivered a pinch-hit, two-out single in the sixth inning that scored Javy Lopez and gave the Braves a 3-2 lead after they had fallen behind, 2-0, in the top of the first. After walking the first two batters of the game and giving up a two-run Sammy Sosa double off the top of the center-field wall, Atlanta starter Mike Hampton battled out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam by striking out three straight Cubs to end the inning. He fanned all three batters in the second inning to match a postseason record of six consecutive strikeouts. Carlos Zambrano started for Chicago and allowed 11 hits, all singles, including a two-run single to Andruw Jones in the fourth inning that tied the score at 2-2. As the teams moved to an electric Wrigley Field for Game 3, the Cubs once again took the series lead with a 3-1 victory. Mark Prior battled in a classic pitchers' duel with Greg Maddux. The only Chicago runs came on a Randall Simon two-out, first-inning single off Maddux that scored Kenny Lofton and Mark Grudzielanek. The Braves' only run came on a Giles sacrifice fly scoring Mark DeRosa in the eighth inning. Game 4 was the first true glimpse of the Braves offense that was on display most of the regular season. Chipper Jones hit two-run homers from each side of the plate as part of Atlanta's 12-hit attack. It was Chipper's first two-homer playoff game since his postseason debut in Game 1 of the 1995 Division Series. The first of his two home runs came from the left side off Chicago starter Matt Clement in the fifth inning and the second came in the eighth inning off lefty Mark Guthrie, giving Atlanta a 6-2 lead. Ortiz, coming off three days of rest, held the Cubs to two earned runs on seven hits over five innings. Eric Karros was the hitting star for the Cubs, launching two solo home runs, one in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning. Sosa almost tied the game in the bottom of the ninth, but his drive off John Smoltz fell into Andruw Jones' glove on the warning track. Game 5 showed just why the Cubs would be moving on. For the second time in the series, Wood turned in a dominating performance (8.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K), shutting down the Braves for a 5-1 Chicago clincher in front of 53,775 fans at Turner Field. During the NLDS, Wood allowed just seven hits over 14.1 IP against the NL's best regular-season offense. The lone Atlanta run came on a controversial play in the sixth inning. Rafael Furcal raced home from second base on a ball hit by Sheffield, who returned after missing Game 4 with a bruised hand suffered in Game 3, that appeared to be caught by a sliding Kenny Lofton in center field. It was ruled a hit. Hampton, pitching on three days of rest, endured a 30-pitch first inning, allowing just one run on a Moises Alou broken-bat RBI single. Alex Gonzalez led off the second inning with a homer to center and Aramis Ramirez hit a two-run home run in the sixth inning to give Wood all the support he would need.

2004 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 2

In their record 10th straight Division Series, the Braves met up with the Houston Astros for the fourth time in the opening round but for the first time failed to take the series. The series was filled with big hits and key pitching, but in the end Houston's big bats proved to be too much. Game 1 saw the Astros pound out four home runs, leading to a four-run third inning and a three-run fifth inning in a 9-3 win. The run support was more than needed for Roger Clemens. The Braves had chances to break the game open early against Clemens, but he escaped jams in each of the first four innings. Jaret Wright started for Atlanta and allowed a career-high three homers in 4.1 innings of work. Andruw Jones provided a highlight with his eighth career postseason home run off Clemens in the fifth inning. The Braves evened the series in dramatic fashion, taking Game 2, 4-2. Trailing 2-0 entering the seventh inning the Braves scored on a Rafael Furcal single in the seventh and added one in the eighth on Adam LaRoche's double to tie the game. John Smoltz went 3.0 strong innings starting in the eighth, just the second time as a reliever he had gone that many innings. He also added a single in the ninth-- his 12th career postseason hit, a record for pitchers. The game remained tied 2-2 until the bottom of the 11th inning when Rafael Furcal hit a game-winning, two-run homer off Dan Miceli to give Atlanta a 4-2 win. Roy Oswalt started for Houston, allowing just one earned run on eight hits over 6.1 IP. Mike Hampton started for the Braves and gave up just two earned runs on four hits before leaving in the seventh inning with tightness in his left forearm. The Braves bullpen combined to go 4.2 scoreless innings. The series shifted to Houston for Game 3 and saw the Astros go up a game with an 8-5 win. Braves starter John Thomson was forced to leave after four pitches when he left with a re-injured left oblique muscle. Paul Byrd made his first career postseason appearance in relief and allowed four earned runs on seven hits in 4.1 IP, the big blow coming on Carlos Beltran's two-run, third-inning home run. The Astros stretched the lead to 7-2 on Morgan Ensberg's sixth-inning, two-run double off Tom Martin. Brandon Backe allowed two runs over 6.0 IP, his only mistake coming on Johnny Estrada's fourth-inning homer. Andruw Jones hit his second homer of the series, a three-run shot off Russ Springer in the eighth. Game 4 was an example of the season-long resolve the Braves displayed. Facing Roger Clemens (5.0 IP, 2 ER) for the second time in the series, the Braves rallied from a three-run deficit entering the sixth inning to win 6-5. Atlanta jumped out 2-0 in the second on an Andruw Jones RBI single and an Adam LaRoche RBI groundout. The Astros came back with five runs in the bottom of that inning, highlighted by a three-run homer by Craig Biggio. The Braves tied the game in the sixth on LaRoche's first career postseason homer, a three-run shot off Chad Qualls. The game turned in to a battle of the bullpens after Russ Ortiz left (3.0 IP, 7 H 5 ER), but the Braves pen took charge. Over the last 6.0 innings, they allowed six hits and no runs. The game-winner came in the top of the ninth inning after Rafael Furcal was hit by a Russ Springer pitch with two outs. Furcal then stole his second base of the day and came around to score on J.D. Drew's RBI single. John Smoltz picked up the win by going the final 2.0 innings and getting Jeff Kent to ground into the Astros third double play of the game to end it in the ninth. The series returned to Atlanta for the deciding Game 5 and the Houston bats certainly showed up. The Astros pounded out 17 hits and scored 12 runs in a 12-3 rout. The game was 3-2 entering the sixth inning, but the Astros added one in the sixth, five in the seventh and three in the eighth to pull away. Roy Oswalt picked up the win on short rest, going 5.0 IP and giving up two earned runs. Houston scored a NLDS-record 36 runs in the series and hit an NLDS-record 11 home runs. Carlos Beltran was the series star hitting .429, and he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI in Game 5. Jaret Wright got the call for Atlanta but gave up four runs in 5.1 IP. Chipper Jones went 2-for-5, but wound up without an RBI in the series. Rafael Furcal had another strong game with his second homer of the series and two more hits, pushing him to .381 (8-for-21) for the NLDS. Andruw Jones hit .526 (10-for-19) in the series.

2005 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 1

Extending their Division Series streak to a record 11 consecutive appearances, the Braves took on the Wild Card winner Houston Astros. Both teams featured a slew of youngsters that would play prominent roles in the series - the final play of the classic fourth game would feature a rookie from both squads - but the Astros would ride good old fashion pitching from their aces and overachieving offense from a normally dormant lineup to defeat the Braves for the second consecutive season in the Division Series. Houston's Morgan Ensberg put on a Game 1 clinic, tying an Astros record with five RBI and helping his squad to a 10-5 win in the opener. The game, which was to feature the pitching duel between Tim Hudson and Andy Pettitte, turned into a slugfest in which the pitching pair combined to allow eight runs. Reliever Chris Reitsma allowed four earned runs and recorded just one out in the eighth inning, helping Houston to a win that tied starter Andy Pettitte with John Smoltz for the most wins in postseason history (14). Smoltz took back his title as the postseason's winningest pitcher in Game 2, hurling seven innings of one-run ball for his 15th playoff win. Houston's 1-0 lead in the first inning was short-lived, as the Braves scored three runs in the second and two more in the third en route to a 7-1 win. Rookie backstop Brian McCann scalded a three-run homer off Roger Clemens in his first career postseason at-bat to put the Braves up 3-1 - a lead from which they would never look back. Andruw Jones went 3-for-4 and Adam LaRoche doubled in a pair of runs, while the bullpen was solid. The Astros went with 20-game winner Roy Oswalt against Jorge Sosa (making his first career postseason appearance) for Game 3, a 7-3 Astros victory that unraveled for the Braves in one inning. While the two starters had similar lines - both allowed three runs and walked two - it was a dreadful seventh inning that led to the Braves demise. With Sosa pulled, Reitsma continued his rough Division Series showing by allowing Craig Biggio's third double of the game followed by an infield single to speedster Willy Taveras. Reitsma gave way to lefty John Foster, but slugger Lance Berkman nailed Foster's first pitch for a home run, and youngster Joey Devine finished the job by allowing a run of his own - all of this without the Braves registering an out. The loss spoiled the second consecutive three-hit night for Braves home run king Andruw Jones, who raised his average to .636 in the series. On just three days' rest, the Braves sent Tim Hudson to the mound against Brandon Backe in a Game 4 that would become a classic. It looked like nothing but a Braves steamroll early on as Adam LaRoche continued his tear, bombing a grand slam in the fourth followed by an Andruw Jones sacrifice fly that chased the Astros' starter. Hudson left with a 5-1 lead, and when McCann hit his second homer of the series to put Atlanta up 6-1, it seemed wrapped up. But when the normally reliable Kyle Farnsworth came in to close out the game in the eighth inning, he allowed a grand slam to Lance Berkman and a two-out, solo homer to light-hitting Astros catcher Brad Ausmus in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game at 6-6. The two teams went on to essentially play another entire game, with both pitching staffs combining for eight innings of scoreless ball that saw the Braves miss opportunities with runners in scoring position five times, including loading the bases with one out in the 14th inning. In the bottom of the 18th, Houston rookie Chris Burke drove Devine's pitch over the left-field wall for a game-ending solo homer that gave the Astros their second consecutive Division Series win against the Braves. The series loss wasn't without some highlights for the Braves, who continued their excellent fielding from the regular season and committed no errors in the four-game set. Adam LaRoche went 4-for-8 (.500) with six RBI in the series and Andruw Jones went 8-for-17 (.471) with three doubles and five RBI.

One of the greatest hitters of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856); and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), third in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), games (3,298) and hits (3,771), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 14th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. Since December of 1989, he has served as Braves' Senior Vice President. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

THIRD BASE

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978, Eddie Mathews was the only player in franchise history to play for the Braves on the Major League level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in 1953 (47) and '59 (46). He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, and 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more. Ten times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBI in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. In 1967 the Braves traded Mathews to Houston, where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. Eddie managed into the 1974 season, accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Eddie was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

OUTFIELD

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, he was moved to the outfield by Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped, as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBIs from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 and 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games (leading all players in votes in 1985), won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher, and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy holds 13 Atlanta franchise records including most home runs (371), RBI (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2000.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

Turner Field (Opened 1997)

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997. Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-4.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August 1997 and the site is now a parking lot.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75/85 and I-20.

Seating – Official capacity for Turner Field is 49,743. Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the Golden Moon Casino Level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper level does not go all the way around the park, thus providing fans a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Field Dimensions – The stadium dimensions are 335' down the leftfield line, 400' to center field, 330' down the rightfield line, 380' to the leftfield power alley and 390' to the rightfield power alley.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – Turner Field features the largest high-definition video display in the world. The Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, installed in 2005, measures 71', 4" by 78', 8" and integrates live video, scoring information and animations onto a single full-color screen to display game content in vivid detail. Also installed in 2005, a Daktronics LED fascia video display wraps around Turner Field between the Terrace and Lexus levels. The 1,085' by 42" display interacts with the massive high-definition board, but also features its own video, graphics, animation, game information and advertising. Turner Field also employs ScorePAD Sports, Inc.'s state-of-the-art STADIUMnet baseball scoring system. This system provides a wide variety of in-game, season, and career information on each baseball player in the game. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Sky Field – Sky Field is a 23,000 square-foot baseball-themed attraction located above the leftfield club level at Turner Field. The distance is estimated at 435 feet from home plate and 80 feet above the field. A ball has yet to reach Sky Field during a regulation Braves' game.

SunTrust Club – In 2008 the Braves unveiled the SunTrust Club, an exclusive seating area with its own private lounge. Season ticket holders in the SunTrust seats enjoy Braves games from a whole new perspective. Some seats are 43' from homeplate – 17' closer than the pitching mound. Included in Club's membership package is valet parking, a private entrance, a 4,000 square foot lounge with gourmet dining and impeccable service, plush seating, flat panel televisions throughout the seating area and in-seat food and beverage service.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Major League Service: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Disabled Lists

15-Day Disabled List: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-Day Disabled List: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

Regulation Game

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Turner Field Ground Rules
